

Hi, I'm Betty,

Folks are always askin', "Betty, this is a damn good burger -- best in town-- where did a girl like you learn to make a burger like this?" Well here's my story....

I come from a small speck of a town in the Texas Panhandle. "Big Dutch Dixon" was the only family I ever knew. He raised me from the time Mama hitched a ride with a Surfer dude from Miami, through heading out to California. I'll never forget that day. I was just five when we watched Mama wave good bye as the Red convertible sped out of town with the Beach Boys blasting on the 8-track. She never looked back. As a kid, I watched those old Bidget movies and thought of Mama and her moon doggie.

Dad Dutch didn't have many talents but he ~~could~~ could ride a Harley like a greased hog and made a wicked good mesquite burger. Many said the best in Texas. Anyway, like they say, the apple doesn't fall far from the tree and at sixteen I headed West to find Mama. Dutch vowed he'd not cook another burger till I returned. Well I found plenty of beach boys, some I even loved. One used to call me "Bidget gone bad". I never did find Mama or a burger as good as Dutch's. Dutch passed on a few years back and all he left me was his burger recipe. Hell, I didn't know the man could write, so here I am.

Kisses, Betty
